Title: AR 1-10 (U) CIA CONTINUITY AND THE CRITICAL MISSION ASSURANCE PROGRAM

[Redacted]

(b)(3)

SUMMARY: 3 September 2008

AR 1-10 is added to the regulatory system. AR 1-10 identifies the Critical Mission Assurance Program's (CMAP) role and introduces the Associate Deputy Director for Central Intelligence Agency (ADDCIA) as the Continuity Coordinator for the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), as designated by the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (D/CIA), and as required by HSPD-20.

Because this regulation is new, boldfaced text to indicate changes has not been used.

This regulation was prepared by the Critical Mission Assurance Program (CMAP), [Redacted] (secure).

(b)(3)

10. (U) CIA CONTINUITY AND THE CRITICAL MISSION ASSURANCE PROGRAM

a. (U//~~AIUO~~) AUTHORITY. CIA continuity activities are in accordance with the National Security Act of 1947, as amended; the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended; the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001, as amended; Executive Orders (EO) 12472, 13231; Presidential Decision Directives (PDD) 62, Homeland Security Presidential Directives (HSPD) 5, 7 and 20; and Agency Regulation AR 1-2i.

b. (U) MISSION. The CIA will develop, maintain, exercise, and periodically update comprehensive plans, procedures, and capabilities to ensure the continuity of Agency Essential Functions and Primary Mission Essential Functions and the preservation of the CIA's critical infrastructure. CIA also will ensure that its continuity programs are integrated with and support the broader US Government continuity efforts.

c. (U//~~AIUO~~) DEFINITIONS

(1) CATASTROPHIC EMERGENCY. Any incident, regardless of location, that results in extraordinary levels of mass casualties, damage, or disruption severely affecting the U.S. population, infrastructure, and environment, economy, or government functions.

- (2) NATIONAL ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS (NEF). That subset of government functions that are necessary to lead and sustain the Nation during a catastrophic emergency and that, therefore, must be supported through Continuity of Operations (COOP) and Continuity of Government (COG) capabilities.
- (3) PRIMARY MISSION ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS (PMEF). Those Government functions that must be performed to support or implement the performance of NEFs before, during, and in the aftermath of an emergency.
- (4) ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS. Operations that must be sustained to ensure that core missions and capabilities to include All Source Analysis, Clandestine Collection, Counterintelligence, and Covert Action, continue during all emergencies.
- (5) ENDURING CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT (ECG). A cooperative effort among the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of the Federal Government, coordinated by the President, as a matter of comity with respect to the legislative and judicial branches and with proper respect for the constitutional separation of powers among the branches, to preserve the constitutional framework under which the Nation is governed and the capability of all three branches of government to execute constitutional responsibilities and provide for orderly succession, appropriate transition of leadership, and interoperability and support of the National Essential Functions during a catastrophic emergency.
- (6) CONTINUITY of GOVERNMENT (COG). A coordinated effort within the Federal Government's executive branch to ensure that National Essential Functions continue to be performed during a Catastrophic Emergency.
- (7) CONTINUITY OF OPERATIONS (COOP). An effort within individual executive departments and agencies to ensure that Primary Mission Essential Functions continue to be performed during a wide range of emergencies, including localized acts of nature, accidents, and technological or attack-related emergencies.
- (8) EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT (EM). The organization and management of resources and responsibilities and the development of plans, procedures, and capabilities for dealing with all emergency preparedness, response, and recovery.
- (9) CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE PROTECTION (CIP). The safeguarding of Critical Infrastructure physical or virtual systems and assets, which are considered so vital to the United States that their incapacitation or destruction would have a debilitating impact on national security, national public health and/or the safety of the population.
- (10) CRITICAL MISSIONS. CIA and Directorate-level activities, as defined by senior Agency leadership, crucial to ensuring the national security of the United States and preserving American life and ideals.
