1. Please check your C files on the following in connection with Klaus ALTMANN: (see Paragraph 4 of Reference A.)

Standard Industrial (Bolivia). La Paz. Avd. Camacho, Edif. Krsul.
Alfonse Fernandez de Luis G.

While we attach no particular urgency to this request, we would comply with the request from LNREAD within a reasonable time.

2. LNREAD has supplied the following additional information on ALTMANN, which was obtained by the LNREAD representative in La Paz:

a. ALTMANN had become a naturalized Bolivian citizen in 1957.

b. He at one time had worked as a mechanic in La Paz while living at Calle Montevideo 126.

c. In March 1965, there was a carpenter shop in the upper Sopicachi area of La Paz, on Calle Pedro de la Gasca, across from #621, run by a Frau ALTMANN who was reported to travel frequently to Caranavi and Santa Cruz to buy lumber.

d. Also in the spring of 1965, there was a lumber yard in Santa Rosa run by a person of German origin named ALTMANN, and a man resembling photographs of Klaus ALTMANN was observed on the premises. The LNREAD representative here also advised that in addition to his friendship with Hans RUDEL, ALTMANN maintains some kind of business connection with Otto SKORZENY.

3. Forwarded under separate cover is a copy of an LNREAD report dated 2 December 1966, which mentions ALTMANN.
