 - e. SUBJECT had mumerous friends and associates who had high positions in the Third Reich such as Rudolf HESS, Karl HAUSHOFER, etc.

(Source: Interview by the undersigned of Albert EORMANN, SUBJECT's brother.) (F-6)

- 8. PREVIOUS HISTORY (TO INCLUDE MILITARY):
 - SUBJECT was born in June or July 1900 in PAJEKRSTADT, the eldest of two sons. SUBJECT was moved from HALBERSTADT to EISENACH (L51/H76) Barfuessenstrasse 18, where he lived from 1904 until 1913. SUBJECT attended grade school in EISENACH. In 1913, SUBJECT and his family moved to HEIMAR (M51/J57) Belvedereallee 28, which was his official residence until 1918. In WEIMAR, SUBJECT completed grade school and graduated from high school in 1917. In 1917 (date unknown) SUBJECT entered the Germany Army and served as a Field Artillery private in the vicinity of MAURIBERG and der Saale. In 1918, for a period of two weeks after the end of hostilities, SUBJECT worked with a forser fellow student on a farm near WALDEWELE bei WEIMAR (M51/J57). From 1918 until 1925, SUBJECT worked as an apprentice farmer on the von TREUENPFAEIZ estates near MACDEBURG.

- b. In 1925, SUBJECT was arrested in connection with the Feme murder trials and was sentenced to one year's confinement in the Reichsgericht jail in LETPZIG. After serving his confinement, SUBJECT returned to the von TREUENFFAELZ estates and worked as a farm management apprentice until 1927. In 1927, SUBJECT moved to WEIMAR and worked for a short time as a salesman for an office equipment firm (name unknown).
- In 1927 in WEIMAR, SUBJECT became acquainted with members of the Freie Korps, and through these individuals, he became acquainted with the NSDAP. Two of his first associates within the MSDAP were from you preferr and from Hallemann. In April 1927 (exact date unknown) SUBJECT became a member of the NSDAP and received his party number of either 60506 or 60508. SUBJECT's rise in the party was rapid. Later in that same year (1927) he became Caupropagandaleiter for land Thuringia, and in 1928, he was called to MUNICH to become a Sturm Abtellung leader (rank unknown). SUBJECT lived in HARLACHING from 1928 to 1930. In 1929, SUBJECT founded and became the leader of the heichshilfskasse der NSDAP. This was a finance office to aid those persons who were injured in MSDAP party meeting brawls. SUBJECT moved from HARLACHING to ICKINC in 1930 and resided there until 1932. He then established a residence in PULLACH which he maintained until 1945.
- d. In 1933 (exact date not known) SUBJECT was called to BERLIN by Rudolf HESS to assist with the transfer of party functions to that city. Shortly after arriving in BERLIN, SUBJECT became HESS's assistant in charge of organization and general management of the ESDAP. In 1941, following HESS's departure for the British Isles, SUBJECT became chief of the NSDAP Party office in BERLIN. SUBJECT's address while in BERLIN is not known.
- e. During the period that SUBJECT was in BERLIN, he had frequent contect with all high personages of the Third Reich, the German military and the HSDAP. Examples of the persons he is alleged to have known well are Colonel Otto SKORZENY, Rudolf HESS, Adolf HITLER, Karl HAUSHOFER, and Heinrich HIMMLER.
- f. According to SUBJECT's brother, Albert BORMANN, the last known whereabouts of SUBJECT was in MITLER's air raid shelter in BERLIN. On 21 April 1945, Albert BORMANN was in telephone contact with HITLER in this bunker, and through this contact, Albert BORMANN obtained inovledge that SUBJECT was also there. Albert BORMANN left BERLIW on that date, and he alleges that that was the last that he heard of his brother.

g. SUBJECT left a wife, Gerda BORMANN, and eight children. His wife reportedly died in BERLIN in 1946. SUBJECT's eldest son, Martin BORMANN, is presently in the Catholic Order of the Heiligen Hers Jesu in INGOLSTADT (M49/T62). The other seven children are residing with different families in the Austrian Tirol. Their guardien is a Catholic priest who resides in BERLIN. The names of these children and the priest and their exact addresses are unknown.

- 11. RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION: As stated in this report and in Personality Report, Subject: "BORMANN, Albert", file as above, dated 25 July 1949.
- 12. ACTION TAKEN AND/OR PEING TAKEN:
 - a. See Paragraph 13, below.
 - b. No further action is contemplated by this headquarters.
- 13. COMMENTS (To include estimates of SUBJECT's importance and influence):
 - a. Albert BORMANN, SURJECT's brother, was of the opinion that SUBJECT was dead. However, he did state that there was a small possibility that SUBJECT was transferred out of BERLIN between 21 April 1945 and 1 May 1945. If this were the case, Albert BORMANN alleges, SUBJECT would probably not be in Russia as has been reported but would probably be in Germany, Switzerland, Spain or South America.
 - b. In view of the fact that SUBJECT may still be alive, there is a possibility that he may be contacting his relatives and former friends. It is therefore, recommended, if deemed advisable, that Communications Intelligence Intercept coverage be placed on his eldest son and his guardian (see Paragraph & above). Since under present conditions, SUBJECT would undoubtedly use ar alias, occurage should be instituted with the view of investigating the background of all persons writing to the above individuals.

 (Source: Personal interview of Subject by the undersigned Agent) (F-6)
- 8. PREVIOUS HISTORY (to include Military):
 - a. Subject was born 2 September 1902 in nAIBERSTADT, the youngest of two sons. Subject was moved from HALBERSTADT to ETE ENACh (151/n76)
 Berfuessenstrasse 18, where he lived from 1904 until 1913. Subject attended grade school in EISENACH. In 1913, Subject and his family moved to WEIMAR (M51/J57) Belvedereallee 28, which was his official residence until 1933. In WEIMAR, Subject completed grade school and graduated from high school in 1922. From 1922 until 1927, Subject was an apprentice in his step-father's bank in WEIMAR. In 1927, he obtained a position in the calculating or computation section of the Electro-technical Firm CARL in OBER WEIMAR (M51/J57) where he remained until 1931. Also, in April of 1927, Subject became a member of the NSDAP and the SA through the influence of his brother, Martin. Subject states that he and his brother became members of the party on the same day (exact date not recalled). Subject's NSDAP Party Number was 60507. In 1930, Subject organized the Hitler Jugend in Lend Thuringia.
 - b. At approximately this time (1930), Eartin BOFMANN established the Reich level financial department of the NSDAP in MUNICH (M19/185). Subject alleges that in addition to payment of full-time party members and of party functions, one of the principal functions of this finance office at that time was for payment of damages caused by rioting that took place at RSDAP party meetings. In 1931, Subject obtained a position as a clerk in this office. At that time, he moved to live with his brother in ICKING (M18/173) (address unknown) near MUNICH. From 1932 to 1933, the two brothers lived in PULIACH (M19/18h).
 - c. In 1933, (exact date not recalled by Subject) he and his brother were called to BEMLIN with the transfer of party functions to that city. In either late 1933 or early 193h, (Subject does not recall exactly, but stated that it was shortly after Rudolf HESS was appointed second in command) Subject was established by HESS as Adolf HITLER's Personnel Adjutant and Chief of HITLER's private office. Subject remained in this capacity until 1945. Subject states that his primary function as Personnel Adjutant was to handle the personal correspondence of HITLER. To assist him in this function, Subject had a staff consisting of two assistants and three secretaries. One of the assistants, Martin AUGST, who have early resides in BERCHIESGADEN, prepared personal correspondence for all LER's signature.

Personality Report, Region VI, MUREBERG, dated 28 July 1949, Subject: BORMANN, Albert, Re: Martin BORMANN File: VI-448.5, D-3213

The other assistant, viktor von INNE, handled all personal foreign correspondence and translations. Although the secretaries changed, Subject recalls the names of a few of them: Fraulein fmm STASCH, Fraulein fmm von FEMENTHAL, Fraulein fmm PILKAN, and Fraulein fmm DOLONOWSKI. The latter later became HITLER's private secretary and married General (of the Air Forces) KRISTIAN. In his capacity as Personnel Adjutant, Subject states that his immediate supervisor was Phillip BUHLER, who was the chief of the office of the director of the MSDAP. At that time, BUHLER received his orders from HITLER.

- d. In 1933, Subject married Ilse BORMANN nee mILLMANN. This marriage, according to Subject, was not approved by his brother Martin, and this difference of opinion widened to a family feud that has existed to the present day. Subject states relations became so strained, that when one brother would enter a room, the other would leave. Therefore, after 1933, Subject had very little official and no personal contact with his brother.
- e. In 1935, Subject received the formal rank of Hauptamtsleiter in the Leader corps of the NSDAP. Subject states that this rank efforded him no benefits from or responsibilities to the party, other than it provided a basis for his obtaining pay from the NSDAP for his performing in the position as Personnel Adjutant. Also, in 1935, Subject received the honorary rank of Gruppenfuhrer in the NSKK. Subject never performed any function in this rank.
- f. While in BERLIN, Subject's address was SCHIACHTEREE (N53/Z64), Schuppenhauerstrasse 31. He alleges that he had little contact with any people other than in his own office and that he had almost no social life. However, Subject does admit knowing such persons as HESS, SKORZENY and nAUShOFER well, and that he had frequent personal contact with HITLER.
- g. On 21 April 1945, Subject was in the Reichs Chancellery in REMLIN with his assistants. His brother, Martin, was with Adolf ETTLER in the latter's air raid bunker in BERLIN. Subject received a direct order from HTTLER to move ATTLER's entire household staff to BERCHTESCADEN at the earliest opportunity. Subject alleges that it was a general plan among party functionaries to also evacuate HTTLER to BERCHTESCADEN at that time, despits the latter's determination to remain in BERLIN. On the evening of 21 April 1945, subject, with his wife and a portion of the household staff, flew from BERLIN to MUNICH. They them went by auto to BERCHTESCADEN, arriving there on the morning of 22 April 1945. While in BERCHTESCADEN, Subject was billeted at the Berchtesgademerhof Hotel, and it was here that subject's first child was born on 25 April 1945. On 26 April 1945, Subject's party moved to HINTERSEE (N48/Z80), 12 kilometers from BERCHTESCADEN, where they were billeted in two Gasthauser there. On approximately 1 May 1945, Subject was notified by General fnu WINTER, then Chief of the Alpine Troops in BERCHTESCADEN, of LTILER's death.

Personality Report, Region VI, NUWRERD, dated 26 July 1949, Subject: RORMANN, Albert, Re: Martin BORMANN File: VI-448.5, D-3213

Subject then moved to IAUFAMZILL am ZEE, Austria, where he stayed at the Guerleitenhof Farm near HINTER ThAL (on the Austrian-German border), which was owned by a frm HOLLENWARTER. On 10 kmy 1945, when the American troops entered IAUFAMZILL, Subject began using as an alias the name and personal data of his wife's first husband, Hermann Martin ROTH.

h. On 10 August 1945, Subject moved by horse-drawn wagon with his wife and their child to LENZHOIZEN 8, Township Forsting (N49/256). Through the Arbeitsamt of FORSTING, Subject obtained employment as a farmhand for Ferdinant ZELLMER, whose farm was near BERGHAM (N49/256). In August 1946, Subject obtained employment with the IANX FDER family in FORSTING as a farmhand, where he worked until June 1948. While employed as a farmhand, Subject's wookly wages were about eight Marks. In Movember 1947, Subject was aided by a farmer, from EMGELMETER, in FORSTING in obtaining additional work. Subject was unemployed from June 1948 until April 1949.

i. On 5 April 1949, Subject turned himself in to the State Ministry for Special Affairs at MUNICH, Kocniginstrasse lla. Subject stated that he was received very informally and was directed to travel unaccompanied to KICISTAET, where he was to report to the Festungs Gefaengnis. Since he has been in EICISTAET, Subject has been treated well, and is presently working on a farm near EICISTAET which is managed by the Festungs Gefaengnis.

j. Subject states that he is to be defended by a lawyer, from MERKENSCH-IAGER, Fruehlingstrasse &, TRAUENSTEIN (N&8/263), who was recommended by the brother of his wife's first husband, Dr. Heinz ROTA, Schoenfeldstrasse 19/2, MUNICH 22, who is also a lawyer. Subject does not know his lawyer's complete name, since he has never met him and has only received one letter from him which indicated that MERKENSCHIAGER was going to BERLIN to get background information for Subject's trial. No charges have been presented to Subject as yet; however, he believes that his falsification of identification will be questioned first; but since there is an amnesty for falsifications made prior to 1 October 1947, Subject feels that he will not be brought to trial on this charge. He will then face the German de-nazification proceedings. Subject feels that he will be charged for his membership in the NSDAP and the Leader Corps, but that he will be classified as a follower, since he had never performed any illegal function.

k. Subject has had no visitors other than Martin BORMANN (Jr.), eldest son of Subject's brother. Martin BORMANN (Jr.) is presently in the Catholic Order of the Heiligen Jers Jesu in INCOLSTADY. Subject stated that when the conversation turned to Martin BORMANN (Sr.), Martin BORMANN (Jr.) etated that he had heard that his father was in MOSCON working with the Soviets. Subject stated that he, himself, believed that that was impossible in view of Martin ROMANN's previous fanatical attitude towards communism.

- 9. REFERENCE TO PREVIOUS REPORTS: None
- 10. REMSON FOR INVESTMATION: Reference is made to request in communication, Headquarters, 7970th counter Intelligence Corps Group, EUCOM, subject and file as above, dated 10 June 1949, that Subject be interviewed by this headquarters,
- 11. RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION: As stated in this report and in Personality Report, Subject: ROHMANN, Martin, file as above, dated 25 July 1949.
- 12. ACTION TAKEN AND/OR BEING TAKEN:
 - a. Possible further detailed interrogation of Subject (See paragraph 13 below)
- 13. COMMENTS: (To include estimates of Subject's importance and influence)
 - a. Subject stated that he has not and will not talk to any person except those representing official American agencies. This statement is borne cut by the fact that the jail officials were very surprised at the length of time that the undersigned Agents talked to Subject, since they had obtained no information from him other than personal statistics. Subject stated that he was very willing to armwar any questions that the undersigned Agent presented him and that he had nothing to hide. In practice, however, Subject appears to have "forgotten" a number of details, particularly for the period 1933 through 1945. It is questionable, that for that period of time, Subject appears to remember about as many details concerning himself as about his brother, with whom he was allegedly out of contact. Subject does not volunteer information, but answers direct questions with simple answers, an "I don't know", or an "I cannot remember". Subject exhibits a paradoxical memory; for example, he can recall with ease his childhood address where he has not been for 36 years, but he had extreme difficulty in remembering his daughter's name who was one of his reasons (allegedly) for not turning himself in earlier (See paragraph 13c below). In this latter case, he pondered for a full five minutes, attempting to recall her name (Birkit), and he wased off his forgetfullness by saying that he had always called her "Bobe".

Personality Report, Region VI, MURMBERG, dated 26 July 1949, Subject: BORMANN, Albert, Re: Martin BORMANN File: VI-448.5, D-3213

When specific events or personalities are mentioned to subject, he will often recall details that he has omitted in general questionings. An example of this would be that Subject was questioned at one point on whether he associated with or knew any of the functionaries of the Third Reich. He replied in the negative, but at a later time, when it was suggested that he would have had considerable contact with HESS and LAUSHOFER. Subject said that he had known them from before 1933.

b. Subject stated that he had last seen his brother, Martin BORMAN, on the evening of 21 April 1945, and that in his personal opinion, he felt that his brother was dead. However, he readily admitted that he nor anyone whom he knew rould prove Martin BORMANN's death. Subject repeated the newspaper item: that he had read intimating that Martin BORMANN might be in Russia, Poland, Switzerland, Spain or South America. Subject further stated that any of the higher ranking personalities with whom his brother was acquainted would most certainly sid his brother's escape from Germany, and that if such persons were definitely outside of Germany at the present time, there would be a possibility that Martin BORMANN was with them or was in contact with them.

c. Subject stated that he had not turned himself over to proper authorities prior to April 1949 because he wished to make arrangements for the safekeeping of his family. He also stated that shortly after the war, he felt that he might have been given harsh treatment because of the reputation of his brother. In line with this, Subject initially stated that he had been advised by members of his family to remain incognite longer. However, later in an interview, Subject denied that anyone whom he contacted from 1945 until 1949 knew his real identity, with the exception of one minor party official that he met on the streets of FORTING during the fall of 1948. Subject would not clarify the discrepancy and only restated that no one knew his identity.

d. It is felt that Subject has demonstrated an expected reluctance to divulging detailed information regarding his position in the Third Reich. The effect of this reluctance could possibly be removed should he be questioned by persons having a comprehensive background of the personalities and events of that period of German history. It is, therefore, recommended, if it is felt by higher headquarters that Subject may be able to add to certain possibly missing details regarding the Third Reich and its perscnalities, that Subject be further questioned by such qualified interrogators.

e. The source and evaluation of the information contained in this report are indicated by paragraph.
