Dear [redacted]

STAT

The Smithsonian Archives hereby transfers to the Central Intelligence Agency one 5"x8"x12" card file box containing private and commercial activity information gathered on persons located in Latin America during 1941-1942. These records were not created by the Smithsonian Institution, and are not the type of records accessioned by the Smithsonian Archives for permanent retention.

I would appreciate an acknowledgement on the receipt of the transfer. Also, since it is known that the Smithsonian Archives had possession of the records, please provide me with procedures for gaining accessibility to the records, in case a research request is made to the Archives.

Sincerely,

Alan L. Bain
Associate Archivist
