

The Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

18 APR 1977

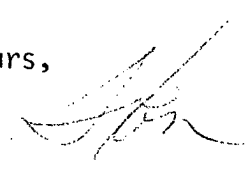

Dear John,

Thanks ever so much for your most thoughtful letter of congratulations. It has been a long time since we talked about the change of watch that was taking place in 1974. I am grateful for all that has happened since then including this latest surprise change of direction. It looks like a wonderful opportunity to serve and I hope that I can fill the bill for the President and the country.

Pat and I are delighted to get caught up on your activities. We assumed you were still with A/U but delighted to know that you've been made Executive Director. I am sure that you are finding it more than rewarding.

If anything brings you to Washington do let us know. In the meantime, again, thanks for your note and the very best to you and Donna.

Yours,

STANSFIELD Turner
Admiral, U.S. Navy

P.S. My office address is probably best. We haven't settled on where we're going to live for sure yet.
