

WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCIL

22 Batterymarch Street
Boston, Massachusetts 02109

Tel. (617) 482-1740

CALENDAR

Wednesday
December 6 Evening Program on "SALT II - WHAT KIND OF TREATY?", with Professor Michael Nacht of Harvard University and Professor Scott Thompson of the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy. Moderated by David Anable, Overseas News Editor of the Christian Science Monitor.

Curtis-Saval International Center Adults: $3.00
5:30 p.m. Students: $2.00

Tuesday
December 12 WORLD FORUM PROGRAM - CHRISTMAS BENEFIT PRINT EXHIBITION AND SALE AND BUFFET SUPPER. Old Master Prints, with etchings, engravings, lithographs, and woodcuts from the collection of Denenberg Fine Arts. Examples will include 16th century Dutch etchings, and 18th and 19th century works. Mr. Jonathan Bober of the Fogg Museum at Harvard will speak about the collection. The fine prints will be available for purchase with a percentage of the profits going to the World Affairs Council.

Rotunda Lecture & Buffet: $7.50
Curtis-Saval International Center Sherry Hour & Lecture Only:
5:30 p.m. Adults: $3.00; Students: $2.00

Thursday
December 14 WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCIL CHRISTMAS PARTY -- a chance to meet your old friends and new acquaintances in a cheery holiday atmosphere with refreshments from foreign lands included. Take a break from your shopping and join us!!

Curtis-Saval International Center Admission: $2.00
5:30 p.m.