Dear Roxanne:

Inevitably, I suppose, we've come across more files to be shipped to you as we finish the final cleaning of the office. I hope this is the final shipment. You will be receiving in Congressional mail bags (with one exception noted below) the following:

N-1: Political appointments, 1977-78; miscellaneous 1976 campaign files; miscellaneous 1980 campaign material.

N-2: River of No Return Wilderness Area maps.

N-3: River of No Return Wilderness Area maps. (This set is coming separately, by regular mail, since it was too big to fit into a bag).

N-4: Office guest books, and a set of Senate Intelligence Committee reports (these are rare and hard to obtain; they are now out of print).

In addition, I was informed today that our office in Moscow, Idaho, has shipped 19 cartons of miscellaneous office files to you. They are not, to my knowledge, coded in any special way.

Q 1-19

Many thanks for your patience and understanding. If you have questions, I believe Jean gave you the phone number of Beverly Fisher, the Senator's personal secretary. My own home telephone number is [redacted] In addition, you should also have Senator Church's unlisted phone number in Bethesda, Md. It is [redacted]

With best wishes for the New Year,

Sincerely,

Cleve Corlett
Press Secretary
