Dear Mr. Houston

A letter has been received by me from your

STATINTL

Personnel Director of which the significant
paragraph reads "there
is not for the present any way in which

I am confident that this is what I spoiled my chances for a job
with your crowd.

I am very grateful to you for the trouble
you took over my case.
I will be in Washington next week and hope
I will be able to see you at that time.

With very many

we would take advantage of your offer"
I think it was a mistake on my part - not to have given references, at the time I handed
you my life history.
The investigator looked up the woman who sponsored me re-entry
to this country in 1946
and also saw her husband, who is a great enemy of mine.

*thanks again, please
believe me
Very sincerely yours*

STATOTHR
