REMARKS:

Attached is the Form 57 of [REDACTED] which I should have sent with him when he came to be interviewed by you. I was very favorably impressed with [REDACTED] and will keep a record of his application against a possible opening in this office.

I know the law firm with which he works, which is a very good one. Outside of my office there are, of course, various places known to you where legal background would be invaluable, but I would judge that [REDACTED] could not be interested in the services or so-called housekeeping side of the business.
