I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

Nothing to Report.

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

a. On 21 November, C/OS discussed again with Col. Mareydt and Major Crum the question of OTR's support for the January USAF course. Col. Mareydt agreed that it would be desirable to have at least some participation in the January course by the USAF instructors now taking the current running of the course. We assured him that one full time man would be made available for the 12 December course to tutor the instructors in specific lectures and presentations, and that the same man would himself give a great deal of the instruction in the next course. Also, if necessary, we would provide an additional instructor to give those lectures which can not be taken care of by the Air Force personnel. Col. Mareydt will check this plan with Col. Reeder and give us the final decision this week.
