

16 September 1955

Mr. Houston requested that I investigate the legal problems that would arise in the establishment of commercial facilities within the new building, such as barber shops, cleaning establishments, etc., in particular, the question is what authorities we possess or might be able to obtain to authorize such activities.

JD