Dear Gordon:

As you know, your Training Division recently completed its first class of instruction for Air Force personnel who are to [Redacted] From the standpoint of both subject matter covered and manner of presentation, the class was a great success. This training will unquestionably prove of great value to the recipients.

We are very grateful for this assistance provided by you and your Training Division. In particular, I should like to express our appreciation of the hard work and long hours put into this project by [Redacted] who directed the course, and [Redacted] who were the principal instructors.

Sincerely,

/s/
