A. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

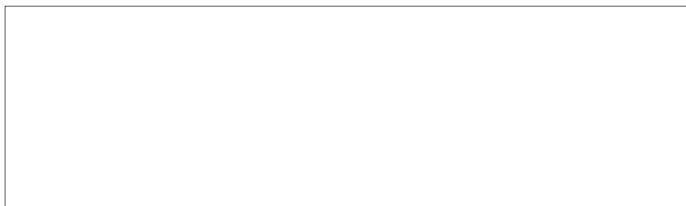

None to report.

B. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. [ ] spent about an hour with C/LAS on the former's investigation resulting from criticisms of language training procedures and practices. It is our feelings that we long ago had met the cited criticisms either by modification of practices and procedures or by proposal to discuss them with our critics. We appreciate and, in fact, invite construction criticism and will be glad to receive any additional such of which we are unaware, as well as positive suggestions for improvement. Regarding contentions that may be still unresolved, I wish to reiterate my written proposal of over a month ago to the DDTR that we sit down face-to-face with our accusers to resolve several basic problems of understanding of which the several incidents are symptomatic, rather than deal in an incident-by-incident manner that does not get at the fundamental problems.

2. [ ] sought and received information on our mobilization requirements.

3. [ ] had a fruitful free discussion with [ ] on overseas training and guidance for newly arrived employees.
