A. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

None to report.

B. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. Six QRP's this week.

2. [redacted] of LAS

and [redacted] A&E attended the all-day panel discussion on "Selection and training of personnel for cross-cultural work" as part of the First Annual International Conference of the Society for International Development at the Shoreham Hotel on 27 February. The very free exchange of thought among panelists (representing government, business, higher education, Christian missions, foundations and philanthropic organizations) and the audience contributed a wide variety of ideas on the central theme that is of dominant concern to us in our new program and that obviously is of rapidly growing concern to all organizations preparing people for more effective service overseas than has been possible prior to recognition of the importance of preparing people emotionally, psychologically, and intellectually, in addition to their professional preparation.
