MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Logistics

ATTENTION : Military Procurement Branch - [REDACTED]

SUBJECT : Fiscal Year 1960 Contract Technical Services Requirements to Support Project LONG BAY

REFERENCE : Memo to Director of Logistics dated 6 April 1959, subject: same as above

25X1

1. It is requested that necessary arrangements be made by the Department of the Air Force to revise the FY-1960 Technical Representative Services in support of the RB-69A Program (Project LONG BAY) as indicated below:

a. Ramo-Wouldridge Corporation:

Terminate the contract for [REDACTED]
Contractual services are no longer required from this company. This Agency has developed the capability of maintaining the Ramo-Wouldridge equipment installed in the RB-69.

25X1

b. Granger Associates, Incorporated:

Terminate the contract requested in the above reference. Contractual services are no longer required from this company. This Agency has developed the capability of maintaining the Granger equipment installed in the RB-69.

c. Westinghouse Corporation:

Inasmuch as the XI Detachment is directly responsible for all maintenance on the RB-69 assigned to this Unit, the guaranteed operation contract in force with this company is no longer required. It is requested that the original contract with Westinghouse be terminated. In lieu thereof, it is requested that a standard AFR 66-16 Technical Representative contract be negotiated to provide only one Technical Representative.
