B. Half hour coffee break meetings have been instituted in the Branch, held weekly on Friday morning for a discussion by all hands of items of intelligence interest such as analysis of Bloc plans, or substantive research accomplished by the Branch or other components during the week. It is felt that exchange of information on new developments, indications of trend, etc., will be mutually helpful.

C. In order to insure continuity of contact it is planned to have one member of I/MM visit the country for a half day each week, rotating this duty. This is apart from the Branch's country commitment and is expected to provide continuing information regarding the progress of country work of interest to I/MM.

D. Progress is being made in preparation of an outline for a study of Communist Chinese industrial investment.
