

- DCh/E to Hal Lary, Council of Economic Advisers:
"Further inquiry reveals that the Soviet delegation of economists, although arriving in New York today, will not appear in Washington until 10 November. They will be here from 10-16 November and are scheduled to be with the Council of Economic Advisers on the 10th. I hope the attached biographical resumes may be of some use. We have no specific questions to raise with them although as you know we are generally interested in forthcoming Soviet economic policy developments if any are in the wind.
