

(Alternate)

a. To offset a prolonged period in which no new personnel had been trained in the basic skills, a [redacted] [redacted] basic paramilitary training course be instituted on an annual basis for junior operations officers who volunteer and who, for the most part, will be JOTs or former JOTs, thereby expanding the individual's qualifications and fulfilling a need for such personnel for contingency situations as well as providing a planned replacement program in functional field;

STAT

STAT