6. [redacted] Review of the transcript of [redacted] testimony before the House Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Government Information by [redacted] CS L, indicates that the testimony in response to questions posed stayed within a secret classification. The prime thrust of the Committee questioning is to the effect that there does not exist in the Executive Branch a place, or responsibility, for the periodical review, declassification, and release to the public of classified information such as the information relating to the tracking of Soviet missiles. See journal of 6 June.
