6. Number of Congressmen Director sees in a year.

Varies greatly. May be anywhere from couple of dozen up to 50 or 60 plus leadership briefings at the White House.

No he does not talk equally frankly to all.

On the whole he does talk completely frankly to the congressional leadership.

7. The Executive Orders establishing the old and new Intelligence Boards are brief and copies are attached. The wording is virtually the same except for the emphasis on the "advisory" function contained in the new Order.

It is my understanding that the Board's membership has been made public. This information is kept in the Executive Director's office and is being provided your office directly.

Mr. Chretien has several files of press clippings referring to the Boards.
