OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 6 February 1964

1. (Unclassified - GIC) Martin Sweig, in the office of Speaker McCormack, called and asked if we could arrange an appointment for [] an applicant for a position with the Agency who has apparently been advised that we cannot appoint him at this time due to budgetary limitations. I made arrangements for him to see [] personnel office.

2. (Unclassified - GIC) Talked with David Martin, Staff Assistant to Senator Thomas J. Dodd. He expects to have a draft of the Senator's speech ready tomorrow morning. In addition, he took this occasion to say he would like to speak with William Colby "for about five minutes." He did not indicate why he wished to talk with Colby but said he needed to speak with him face-to-face. I told Martin I thought this could be arranged and I would be in touch with him.

3. (Unclassified - GIC) I advised Jack White, in the office of Representative Joel Eroyhill, that while I didn't feel it would serve any useful purpose with respect to his case, I would be willing to meet with [] and White sometime Monday morning. [] is a former employee who has persisted in claiming compensation for overtime for which there is no record of authorization.)

4. (Unclassified - JSW) Talked with Jim Gehrig in Senator Symington's office in connection with providing certain materials. Arrangements were made for me to see Gehrig tomorrow morning.

5. (Internal Use Only - JSW) Boyd Crawford on the staff of House Foreign Affairs Committee, telephoned indicating that Representative Adair of the Committee had requested him to make arrangements for a CIA representative to meet the Congressman on a point regarding CIA relations with []. The thrust of the Congressman's query is not at all clear and arrangements were made for me to meet with the Congressman tomorrow morning.
