

AT AIR FORCE PARTY—Mrs. Nathan Twining (left), wife of the new chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, joins Mrs. John L. Gerhart (center) and Mrs. Elmer J. Rogers, jr., in sampling one of the delicacies at the Texas-Mexican dinner given last night by USAF Lt.

Gen. and Mrs. Charles P. Cabell in their quarters at Bolling Air Force Base. The party honored the Twinings and the new Air Force Chief of Staff and Mrs. Thomas D. White. Star Staff Photo.

SERVICE SCENE

Twining's Honored At Mexican Dinner

By RUTH DEAN

A bright red table cloth set with Mexican mats and fire-colored zinnias provided a spicy setting for the Texas-Mexican dinner which USAF Lt. Gen. and Mrs. Charles P. Cabell gave in their Bolling Air Force Base quarters last night.

Honor guests were the new chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and former Air Force Chief, Gen. Nathan Twining, and Mrs. Twining, and the new Air Force Chief of Staff, and Mrs. Thomas D. White.

Famed Cook

Mrs. Cabell is famous for her South of the Border cookery.

She spent all yesterday preparing for the annual feast to which their friends look forward all year long.

Avocado dip with fritos was served with the drinks before dinner. Later everyone helped themselves at the buffet which offered such red hot delights as chile, Mexican beans, enchiladas, tamales, with a fresh pine apple sherbet "cooler" on the side, and home-made Mexican pecan candy.

The party also celebrated the Cabell's upcoming 23rd anniversary on September 18, on which day the couple plan to leave on a three weeks trip to California.

Assisting her mother with arrangements for the party was their pretty debutante daughter, Catherine DeWitt, and Mrs. Cabell's sister, Mrs. Donald Dunford.

Fun Fete

Adding to the party fun was the fact that no introductions were necessary. Everyone knew each other.

Among those invited were Lt. Gen. and Mrs. Joseph Smith, Gen. and Mrs. John A. Samford, Gen. and Mrs. Curtis LeMay, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Heywood S. Hansill and Gen. and Mrs. Leon Johnson.

Also asked were Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Donald Zimmerman, Lt. Gen. and Mrs. Emmet

O'Donnell, Lt. Gen. and Mrs. Manuel Asensio, Lt. Gen. and Mrs. Donald Putt, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Reuben Hood, Lt. Gen. and Mrs. Elmer Rogers and Lt. Gen. and Mrs. William Irvine.

Also at the party were four newcomers to Bolling, Lt. Gen. and Mrs. William H. Tunner and Lt. Gen. and Mrs. John K. Gerhart.

Coming from Baltimore for the dinner were the new head of the Air Research and Development, Lt. Gen. Samuel E. Anderson, and Mrs. Anderson.