MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence
✓Deputy Director for Science and Technology
Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : New Covers for CIA Publications

1. The Director has approved new covers for certain CIA publications having external distribution. The covers have been designed for their simplicity and flexibility with an over-all format and color for Agency identification. These covers will begin to be used on a few CIA publications in November. As stock becomes available, their use will be extended to additional publications. The covers of CIA publications, authorized in the future, will follow the same basic design.
