Reveal Too Much

To the Editor:

Sir—The article in The News recently, entitled "Chief of CIA Says We Reveal Too Much," echoes a feeling I have had for a long time. In the two columns adjacent to the article appears a photo of the XFV-1 experimental Navy plane. In all probability the picture contains no information of value to a potential enemy and undoubtedly was made by the UP with the permission of competent authority.

This is not in criticism of your excellent paper. Nevertheless, it has appeared on occasions that the press should have exercised restraint and self-censorship in matters where security seemed involved.

Montclair, WILLIAM F. KARL.
