

FRITZ MOLDEN DIVORCED*Former Joan Dulles Charges
Cruelty—Will Be Wed Again

Mrs. Joan Dulles Molden, daughter of Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and Mrs. Dulles of 239 East Sixty-first Street, and Dr. Eugen F. Buresch, director of the Austrian Information Service here, obtained a marriage license yesterday at the Municipal Building.

Mrs. Molden, a niece of John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State, obtained a divorce in Reno Tuesday from Fritz P. Molden of Vienna and New York on the ground of cruelty. Dr. Buresch served as first secretary of the Austrian Legation in Rome in 1946 and later in London. His father, the late Karl Buresch, is a former Prime Minister of Austria.

Mr. Molden, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ernst Molden of Vienna, and Miss Dulles were married at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church here on April 2, 1948. Mr. Molden then was foreign editor of the Viennese newspaper Die Presse. He received the United States Medal of Freedom for his work with the Austrian underground in World War II.
