Custodians of documents listed in paragraphs above may refer to the appropriate cited authorities for taking regrading action as proscribed in paragraph 18a and 18c, AR 380-5, dated 15 November 1949 and Changes thereto.

In connection with regrading of radios, attention is invited to paragraph 18d, AR 380-5 dated 15 November 1949 and Changes thereto which provides that messages previously cryptographed may be downgraded to Confidential, without paraphrase, when the subject matter permits. Downgrading to Restricted or Unclassified will necessitate paraphrase of the text in accordance with paragraph 41c(4), unless the original message is marked "Paraphrase not required". This applies also to messages sent in other than Army cryptosystems.

(Note: In connection with regrading of radios, attention is invited to paragraph 18d, AR 380-5, dated 15 November and Changes thereto, which provides that messages previously cryptographed may be downgraded to Confidential, without paraphrase, when the subject matter permits. Downgrading to Restricted or Unclassified will necessitate paraphrase of the text in accordance with paragraph 41c(4), unless the original message is marked "Paraphrase not required". This applies also to messages sent in other than Army Cryptosystems.)
