MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, National Photographic Interpretation Center

SUBJECT : Training Sponsored by NPIC for the DD/S&T Career Development Course #2

1. The orientation and training provided to the students of the DD/S&T Career Development Course #2 by the National Photographic Interpretation Center, 25 March through 3 April 1968, was very well planned and carried out. This was an effective and valuable contribution to the Course. I would especially like to commend

25X1

[redacted], who developed and coordinated the over-all program, and others of your Office who supported and participated in this extensive effort. The students and, especially I, appreciated your taking your own time to be with us during the closing hours of the Course.

2. Please express our sincere appreciation to members of your Staff for their untiring efforts and the excellent briefing given us during our visit to your Center.

3. Again, may I state our sincere thanks to you, personally, and to the National Photographic Interpretation Center for this important contribution toward achieving the objectives of the DD/S&T Career Development Course.
