5. [ ] Harrison M. Symmes, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Congressional Relations, called to say that Senator Lowell P. Weicker (R., Conn.) had recently requested and received a briefing by a Department officer on the John Downey case, but had expressed a desire to hear from the Agency on any additional information which we might have. At Symmes' suggestion, I agreed to follow up by getting in direct touch with Weicker.

7. [ ] Talked to Bill Woodruff and Fran Hewitt, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee, and asked if we could borrow a copy of the hearings on the Second Supplemental Appropriations Bill for 1952 containing testimony by General Walter Bedell Smith. These hearings are apparently in Appropriation Committee archives but they will try to locate them for us. We are interested in them in connection with the OLC history.

11. [redacted] advised that Carl Coleman, Administrative Assistant to Representative James D. McKeivitt (R., Colo.), called RFE for some background material to use in answering constituent inquiries generated by the proposed legislation introduced by Senator Case and Representative Reid. RFE will send Coleman suitable material.

12. [redacted] J. Sourwine called in connection with his earlier request to [redacted] for a copy of "The National Liberation Movement in Latin America" and said that he had been misadvised by the Library of Congress and it does not have the work. Further, he understands that the work is "one of yours" and said he would treat it accordingly for his information only.
