

29 June 1955

Mr. John B. Adams
Public Relations
National Press Building
Washington 4 D.C.

Dear Mr. Adams:

Your request of 23 June 1955 for our daily monitoring report has been referred to me by Colonel Grogan. I regret that for this document our dissemination policy, which is of very long standing and is rigidly applied, makes it impossible to meet your request.

Sincerely,

Chief, FBIS

bcc: Colonel Grogan

Mr. and Mrs. Adams
To Publish U. S. Lady

WASHINGTON

Controlling stock in U. S. Lady, the monthly magazine for service wives and service women, has been acquired by John B. Adams, public relations consultant. His wife, Mrs. Alvadee Adams, is the newly-named editor. Both have had extensive newspaper experience.

Mr. Adams was associated with the Hearst newspapers, Associated Press and CBS here and abroad. In 1941 Mrs. Adams (Alvadee Hutton) received a Pulitzer Traveling Scholarship from Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism.

for March 10, 1956

W10