

Intellectuals

Finish Friendly Debate

Reuters

WARSAW, May 9—The first of other European states were Polish United States round clearly presented, according to the conference ended here to American sources tonight after three days of . The Warsaw meeting friendly, uninhibited debate marked a new development in on economic, political and cul- East-West debates. It was the first time that a Soviet bloc American intellectuals. country had organized a

A communique said there broad-ranging and uninhibited would be further discussions discussion on areas of inter- about a second meeting in the national dispute with Ameri- United States but no date was can intellectuals.

Polish speakers reflected their country's preoccupation with West German policies. Financial support for the meeting was provided by the Ford Foundation and similar and emphasized the destr- backing would be necessary ability of official Western rec- for a resumption of the de- ognition of the present Polish- German frontiers.

Talks Are Friendly

All debates were private and numbers agreed not to dis- U.S. representatives said they found no areas of angry close individual contributions to the exchanges. It was gen- dispute with the Poles, who were conversant with the pres- ent American social and politi- cial climate.

Polish in- The American participants intellectuals yielded more in the were: Frederick Burkhardt, sense of freer expression of chairman of the American opinion than similar ex- Scientific Organization Coun- cil; Hanson Baldwin, New York Times correspondent; and Soviet representatives in Eliot Bell, chairman, Mc- Graw-Hill Publishing Co.; the last three years.

Common Market Is Topic

Educators, journalists and scientists participated in the conference.

Polish fears that the European Common Market would eventually strengthen West German economic and political power at the expense national Division director.

AN INVITATION TO TASTE

A Most Historic American Bourbon

FROM VIRGINIA'S

a u
e n r i n g