

Powers Fulfilled

Last Of A Series

Twenty-four days after the exchange on the bridge, Powers made his first public appearance, before the Senate Armed Services Committee. From the time he had set foot on American soil until he was seated in the Senate Caucus Room on Capitol Hill, Powers had been hidden and interrogated by the Central Intelligence Agency.

Two hours before he testified, the CIA issued a report which said he had lived up to "his obligations as an American under the circumstances in which he found himself." It said he had volunteered for a lie detector test.

BY DAVID WISE AND THOMAS B. ROSS

Duties

Flights were a blown instrument and would have to stop.

By lying, when it could have remained silent, by admitting it had lied, by disclaiming Presidential responsibility, then admitting Presidential responsibility, and finally by implying the rights would continue, the United States all but made it possible for the summit meeting to take place.

was designed the camera. But at the time it was taken, it was not clear how any of the participants could have been taken down at a moment like this. To the extent that the celebration is largely a failure, it is largely a failure of the United States.

or The Coming Week

Florida Agricultural Research Institute, Wed.-Fri., 150, Deauville.

Purchasing Agents' Association of Florida, Wed.-Sat., 250, Casablanca.

American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, Thur.-Mon., 300, Edin Roc.

National Contesters' Association, Thur.-Mon., 500, Deauville.

El Farsante

Por TONY SOLAR Redactor de The Miami News

Mejico, con sus cuarente inviernos de reforma agraria, todavia tiene que ocultar a turista el triste espectaculo del indio descalzo, sin mas patrimonio que el sarape, y sin mas bienestar que el "taco" cuando lo consigue sudando sobre el surco de sol a sol.

Esas son las condiciones generales del agro en un pais que puede alardear de los presidentes mas ricos del mundo, entre ellos, el buen señor que de un solo chequea compro el Waldorf Astoria en New York por tres millones de

Dr. Dahlberg, Left, And F. L. Alsobrook

News of RELIC In Gre

DR. HARRIS

SPIRES OF Big Wor