OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 9 August 1972

1. In response to his request I left for David Martin, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, copies of the exchange of correspondence between Mr. Houston and the general counsel of Harper and Row on the McCoy book. Martin advised me earlier in the day that General Walt would arrive in town about 4 p.m. Sunday and would be available to see Mr. Colby most any time thereafter Sunday evening.
