On April 11, President Johnson announced the appointment of Brother Vice Admiral William Francis Raborn, Jr., (Ret.) 32°, as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Brother Raborn was born on June 8, 1905, at Decatur, Texas, and is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis. As a Naval aviator he served in World War II and received many commendations including the Legion of Merit. In 1955 he was appointed to head the Polaris Development. Admiral Raborn served as Deputy Chief of Naval Operations for Development until his retirement in 1963. Since then he has been vice president of Aerojet-General Corporation in California.

Brother Raborn is a member of the United Service Lodge, 1118, F. & A. M., New York, New York, and of the Washington, District of Columbia, Scottish Rite Bodies.

The New Age gives Brother Raborn a warm welcome to Washington and to the House of the Temple.
