Approved For Release: CIA-RDP75-00001R000100240006-5

ESSEX (N.J.) CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL Mayflower Hotel 21 March 1967

I. Introduction

- A. Apology for no cloak and dagger
  - 1. Need for apology explains why I'm here
    - a. Shall talk about "Intelligence"
    - b. What most people think of -- James Bond bit
    - c. Natural reaction to news, movies, television
  - 2. The "iceberg" analogy
- B. Preview of talk
  - J. What intelligence really is and does
  - 2. How we developed our present system
  - 3. What our system is
- C. Questions following talk
  - 1. A dangerous invitation
  - 2. Shall try to answer

II. What Intelligence Is

- A. The Cuba missile crisis -- October 1962
- B. The basic job -- information and estimates

Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-00001R000100240006-5

Approved For Release: CIA-RDP75-00001R000100240006-5

III. Development of U.S. Intelligence

- A. History of intelligence
  - 1. Ancient history -- Moses and Joshua
  - 2. American history -- Nathan Hale, Civil War
- B. Intelligence a military activity
  - 1. To detect enemy weaknesses, intentions
  - 2. To interfere with enemy action
  - 3. Remained so until World War II
- C. Lesson of WWII
  - 1. Pearl Harbor -- need for coordination
  - 2. Wartime -- Military intelligence not enough
    - a. Schweinfurt raids
    - b. Pacific islands
- D. Lessons after WWII
  - . The Cold War -- Communism
  - 2. Need for continued intelligence
- E. Formation of Intelligence Community Act of 1947

IV. The U.S. Intelligence Community

- A. The National Security Council
  - 1. Membership and advisers
  - 2. Responsibility

Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-00001R000100240006-5

- B. The United States Intelligence Board
  - 1. Membership -- chairman; observers (ship NSA here)
    - a. Defense
    - b. State
    - c. CIA
    - d. FBI
    - e. AEC
  - 2. Function
- V. National Security Mission of Intelligence
  - A. Collection, production, and estimating
  - B. Development of an effective preventive force
    - 1. Story of the Chinese War Lords
    - 2. Prevention is our best hope for survival