Boston - [REDACTED] Personnel/Security Officer, Central Intelligence Agency, will be graduated May 14 from the 9th session of the Program for Management Development at the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration. This session began January 24, 1965.

Participating in the 16-week program were 61 business executives, government and military leaders from the United States and overseas. Each was sponsored by his organization as a middle manager of high potential. PMD is operationally oriented, designed to equip middle managers to handle their day-to-day assignments with a broader perspective and to prepare them to assume increasing responsibility in the years ahead.

NOTE: We would appreciate receiving a tear sheet from your organization's publication in which this story may appear.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.
