

Rites Tomorrow For J. E. White, Jr., Accident Victim

Funeral services for James Edward White, jr., 23, killed in an automobile accident Tuesday near McLean, Va., will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow at St. Francis DeSales Catholic Church, Twentieth street and Rhode Island avenue N.E. Burial will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

Mr. White, a zoology major at Howard University and employee of the Central Intelligence Agency, was killed when his sports car skidded off a curve on Kirby road, throwing him into the water off Pimmit Run.

Born in Washington, he was graduated from Dunbar High School in 1957. He was a second lieutenant in the Cadet Corps and played bass drum in the school band.

A former clerk at the Post Office Department, Mr. White joined the Central Intelligence Agency about a month ago. He also had been attending Howard at the same time. He was a member of Les

JAMES EDWARD WHITE, Jr.

Gentilhommes and was a parishioner of St. Francis DeSales Church.

Mr. White leaves his wife, Malitha W., and a daughter, Janice Y., both of the home address, 409 Ridge road S.E.; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. White, and two brothers, Jeffrey E. and Jonathan E., all of the same address, 2002 Franklin Street N.E.