Castro 'Probes' CIA

Miami, March 29 (AP)—Fidel

Castro and his Communists

leagues are trying to document their contention that "imperialism" is trying to lure Latin American peoples into its camp by cultural and ideological means, the Havana radio said today. Evidence gleaned in areas such as "the support the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency gives to theatrical, student and intellectual groups" will be examined July 28-Aug. 5 in Havana.
