Two Seeking Rains' Post

WASHINGTON — U.S. Rep. George Huddleston announced Friday he will seek his sixth term in the House.

The Birmingham lawmaker is a member of the House Armed Services Committee and its subcommittee which checks on the Central Intelligence Agency.

Meanwhile, two Gadsden attorneys jumped into the race for the post held by U.S. Rep. Albert Rains. They are State Sen. George C. Hawkins and State Rep. Gary Burns. Both are Gadsden attorneys.

Hawkins said in his announcement: "Independence has been my byword for the past decade and a half as both a member of the state House and Senate. I have always followed the state administrative program whenever their political course seemed right to me. But I have never hesitated to set an independent course whenever any administrative course did not seem to be in the best interest of the people."
