Approved For Release 2006/11/13: CIA-RDP75-00399R000100190043-0

REPORT REQUIREMENT TYPES

- 1. Reports required by a specific DD/S component prepared for use within the component. In other words, it is a report required by a component for its own internal use.
- 2. Reports required by any component of the DD/S Directorate levied either by Regulations, memorandum, or some other form which are prepared Agency wide. In other words, it is a DD/S Directorate requirement of all other CIA components. Example: RAB levies a yearly requirement in other components in the Agency for a records inventory report.

3.	Reports	required by	y other	CIA	components	from I	DD/S	offices	· .
	Example:	DD/P ask	s Commo	for	a 💮	pouch	insp	ection	report.

STAT

- 4. Reports required by governmental Agencies external to CIA.
- 5. Any report required by OPPB.
- 6. Reports required by the DD/S (himself) or his Executive Office of DD/S Directorate components.
- 7. Reports required by any DD/S component to be prepared by other DD/S component only. This may mean one DDS Office component or all components.
- 8. Reports required by any DD/S component to be prepared by another (specific) Agency component other than DD/S. This differs from Category 2 in that Category 2 includes all Agency components whereas Category 8 deals only with specific components not an Agency wide requirement.
- 9. Reports required by DD/S components to be prepared by Agencies or offices external to CIA.