STAT 4. [redacted] Nancy Heim, in the office of Representative John Dellenback, called concerning a letter from a constituent who wanted to see a representative on an "important matter" by 6 February. She said she was reluctant to call because the letter was written rather immaturely. After a brief discussion, she was going to call their regional office in Oregon to get further information and would call back. The constituent is [redacted] [redacted] Oregon. A check of Security records on [redacted] was negative.
