25X1 3. [ ] Talked to Eleanor Holms, Appointment Secretary for Senator Henry Jackson (D., Wash.), to arrange a date for Ted Shackley and me to see the Senator regarding a matter of some importance on which the Director would appreciate his views. An appointment was made for 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Senator's office.

25X1 4. [ ] After a discussion with [ ] OER, called J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, and told him that we could not provide an official figure as to the amount of gold reserves in the Soviet Union. I referred him to the figure given in the publication, Gold-1971, by David Lloyd-Jacob and Peter Fells, which is accepted as a good ball park figure. He appreciated the information and told me that Mr. Brand, in the Library of Congress, was preparing a study on world gold reserves should we be interested. Sourwine had requested this information for an unnamed senator who is proposing legislation for the U.S. to mine and hoard gold. (See Journal for 20 February 1973.) 25X1

25X1 5. [ ] CIA congressional intern in the office of Senator Bob Packwood (R., Oreg.), called concerning a constituent who said the Government had welshed on a finder's fee for gold bullion which he helped locate following World War II. Under the facts, it was suggested that [ ] contact the Department of the Army Congressional Liaison. 25X1
