9. (Unclassified - LLM) George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, called requesting our approval to release Agency transcripts and material to the Special Prosecutor in response to the latter's request and I said this would be perfectly all right. Murphy stressed that Senator Baker wanted Mr. Colby to know that he was scrupulously adhering to our agreement for the handling of this material and that he wanted to be sure that its handling met with Mr. Colby's approval. [REDACTED] was advised. 25X1A

10. (Unclassified - LLM) Mike Madigan, Senate Select Committee on Presidential Campaign Activities staff, called to request permission for himself and Howard Liebengood, of the Committee staff, to temporarily remove Agency transcripts and material from the custody of George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, for work in their office in the Dirksen Office Building. Madigan said we should consider this as a request from Senator Baker and I told him I would see what we could work out.

11. (Unclassified - BAO) Received a call from Mooney in the office of Representative W. C. (Dan) Daniel, (D., VA.), requesting the phone number and position title of Carl Duckett. After checking with [REDACTED] and informing Mr. Cary, I called her and gave her the information. 25X1A

12. (Unclassified - PLC) Called Alan Chvotkin, staff member, Subcommittee on Budgeting, Management and Expenditure, Senate Government Operations Committee, to determine the status of S. 1414, among those bills on Congressional budget reform. According to Chvotkin, the bill was calendared for a vote, but he doubts that it will ever come up this session. It was originally agreed that the bill would be considered separate from S. 1541 and H.R. 7130, the major bills on budget reform which passed both houses and are now in conference.

13. (Confidential - JGO) Received a call from Art Kuhl, Chief Clerk, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who told me [REDACTED] been received by the Committee. [REDACTED] 25X1A
