Thursday - 7 November 1974

[Redacted]

1. [Redacted] Called Mrs. Rusling, Executive Assistant, office of Representative Jaime Benitez (D., Puerto Rico), in response to her call yesterday requesting that an Agency representative brief four members of the Puerto Rican Justice Department. Special Investigating Department: [Redacted]

[Redacted] on the influence of Cuba in Puerto Rico. I explained to Mrs. Rusling that this matter would be best handled by the FBI. She thought that the Puerto Ricans would be very much disappointed if they did not meet with a representative of the Agency, and added that one of the members [Redacted] had told her in confidence that he had worked for the Agency. I asked her to call me back if a turndown of the request would create a problem for Representative Benitez and I would look into the matter further.

2. [Redacted] Called George Gilbert, OMB, in response to his memorandum requesting the views of the Agency on H. Con. Res. 515, a bill involving the law of the sea and fishing rights. I explained that the Agency has no policy role on the NSC Interagency Task Force of the Law of the Sea, and therefore we would offer no comment on the bill.

Gilbert inquired as to the status of the Agency's legislative program for the 94th Congress. I told him I was sure it was near completion and that he would be receiving a call from [Redacted]

3. [Redacted] Called Doug Marvin, Counsel, Senate Judiciary Committee, and asked what action Senator Roman L. Hruska (R., Neb.) would be taking on the Senate vote to override the President's veto of H.R. 12471, which amends the Freedom of Information Act. According to Marvin the Senate is scheduled to vote on the veto during the week of 18 November. He is exploring with Senator Hruska the possibility of introducing a new bill which would incorporate the changes recommended by the President in his veto message. It would be hoped that the Senate leadership would schedule this bill for a floor vote before the vote on the veto is taken. This proposal is to be discussed tomorrow with Senator Edward M. Kennedy (D., Mass.); if he disagrees it will be difficult to convince the leadership to take this action. I expressed Agency support of the new bill. He will inform me of the outcome of the discussion with Kennedy tomorrow and invited the Agency to contact appropriate Senators to support the new bill

25X1 [redacted]

25X1 4. [redacted] Talked to Clark McFadden, General Counsel Senate Armed Services Committee, who would like to come out to Headquarter 25X1 sometime next week for a follow-up session with Ted Shackley or [redacted] EA Division, on subjects covered on our recent visit to a number of Far East field stations. I will contact McFadden next week to arrange a mutually convenient time.

25X1 6. [redacted] OCI, called to alert us to 25X1 the fact that we might also be receiving a request for information from a Mr. Cline of GAO.

25X1 7. [redacted] In response to Senator Claiborne Pell's (D., R. I.) personal request of last evening, I talked to Paul Goulding, Administrative Assistant to the Senator, and told him that we have no upto date information on Carlos Rivero Collado; that Collado was not a leader at the time of the Bay of Pigs but only rank and file. I suggested once again that the information should be obtained from the FBI.
