3. [redacted] - LLM) [redacted] reported that last Tuesday and Wednesday, [redacted] received a call from Representative Michael Harrington's (D., Mass.) office and translated a chapter entitled, "American Intervention in Chile" from a French book. Subsequently, Susie Wallerstein, of the Representative's office, in response to her query was told of the Agency's relationship with [redacted]. The translated chapter contains certain criticisms of the Agency but [redacted] does not have a copy of the translation. As, per the initial request, it was placed on tape and not transcribed.

4. (Internal Use Only - LLM) [redacted] reported that an INR representative had suggested that the Stennis bill (S. 2597) would prohibit the use of military officers in [redacted]. This is not the intent nor the impact of the legislation although a related measure, the Proxmire amendment to the Defense Procurement Authorization bill with its provision against "illegal activities," might be erroneously construed as preventing military officers from [redacted].

5. (Internal Use Only - DFM) Talked to Edith Washkewich and Robert Hull, Department of State, regarding a supposed change in State Department policy which would authorize the payment of a salary to wives of Foreign Service officers. Both Washkewich and Hull were sure that there is no such policy pending. I so informed [redacted] who had made the initial inquiry.
