DIARY NOTES

25X1A

ADD/A [redacted] 16 and 17 October 1952

25X1A9a

1. I approved of [redacted] transferring from [redacted] staff to the 25X1A9a Office of the Deputy Director (Plans) to become the Administrative Officer for the FE Division and have notified [redacted] 25X1A9a

25X1A9a

2. [redacted] advises that the Director has approved of the re-entry on duty 25X1A9a of [redacted] at grade GS-16 (which he had at the time he went on leave without pay) and the allotment of an additional super grade position on his table of organization.

25X1A9a

3. [redacted] came to see me about a [redacted] (trans- 25X1A9a ferred from the Office of the Deputy Director (Plans) to the Procurement and Supply Office) for whom there seems to be no place in the Procurement and Supply Office.
I called General Morris and asked him to look into this case personally and to see 25X1A9a if we couldn't place [redacted] somewhere else in the Agency. It doesn't add up that we should be returning to the Army full Colonels who have satisfactory records and at the same time be requesting more.

25X1A9a

4. Talked to [redacted] of Jim Angleton's staff regarding a special contract 25X1A9a which [redacted] brought to me due to the fact that it apparently exceeded any authorization which he had authority to approve. [redacted] assures me that this 25X1A9a is merely a new name for one of the contracts on which the Director has already signed off and that the Director will sign off on this one in a few days. I told Mr.
25X1A9a [redacted] to go ahead and negotiate the contract.

25X1A9a

5. General Morris advised me that General Smith had told him personally that he approved of employing [redacted] retired, as a GS-14 in General 25X1A9a [redacted] shop; this appointment will not come under Public Law No. 53. 25X1A2d1

[redacted]

7. [redacted] telephoned expressing some unhappiness about a new form which 25X1C4a personnel going out [redacted] have to fill out. He seemed to think that it was an unnecessary administrative burden, etc. Told him that I would look into the matter and have directed Personnel to give me all of the facts in this case.

8. I told Mr. Becker that I had been most favorably impressed with Mr. [redacted] and if he desired to put him on his staff as a chief Administrative Officer it certainly had my stamp of approval.

9. Consulted with [redacted] regarding the area of disagreement between DD/P and I&S regarding implementation of the Coyne report. Dick feels that the principles involved here are so important that the matter should be presented to the Director for his decision; his office is actively engaged in the preparation of a study to get the facts together.
