DIARY NOTES

ADD/A

19 July 1952

1. Mr. Macy, Bureau of the Budget, telephoned to say that Mr. Staats would probably contact the Public Buildings Service to discuss the possibility of CIA acquiring the Navy Building before going to the President with the Director to discuss this matter. I relayed General Smith's feelings concerning their reluctance to release more than $400,000 for air conditioning equipment. Mr. Macy emphasized that the door was not completely closed and that he was still waiting for a memorandum giving him our criteria for installing the equipment. H
