1. I asked [REDACTED] to investigate a report which I had received to the effect that three CIA employees were in some sort of difficulty with the police in the vicinity of Hogates Restaurant last Friday night. He reported back that these three individuals were not CIA employees but "intelligence agents" on a legitimate mission. The police are fully aware of the situation but will not divulge their names or the agency to which they belong.

2. Kirk buzzed to say that the Director had referred to him a letter from a Mr. [REDACTED] an ex-employee who is an attorney for a Mr. [REDACTED] formerly employed in the Office of Logistics but who was terminated under the Director's special powers some time ago. Mr. [REDACTED] asks to have Mr. [REDACTED] reinstated or that we take other appropriate action for what he alleges is the injustice done to Mr. [REDACTED]. I agreed with Kirk that he should handle this case.
