1. I met with Jim Garrison, [REDACTED], and [REDACTED] to decide on procedures for responding to the Inspector General's Survey of the Office of Logistics.

2. Ed Saunders, [REDACTED], John Tietjen, Emmett Echols, and I had our monthly meeting with Mr. Kirkpatrick on problems facing the Agency. It was decided that only one copy of the minutes of these meetings would be kept and that copy would be located in my office. (Emmett, however, is to prepare the minutes.) Ed Saunders had asked to discuss the Project Review Committee procedures and the setting up of special support organizations such as DPD and WH [REDACTED]. I expressed the view that we should not waste our time with these problems at the moment; a month or two later may be a different story, however. In any case Kirk is now inspecting DPD and insofar as duplication of Support Services is concerned he is going to look at this most carefully.
