MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]
Office of Legislative Counsel

FROM : F. W. M. Janney
Director of Personnel

SUBJECT : H.R. 9043, Flexible and Compressed Work Schedules

REFERENCES : (a) H.R. 9043
(b) Informal OLC note, undated

1. In response to reference (b) request, the Office of Personnel has reviewed the proposed Bill, H.R. 9043, to authorize experiments in the Federal Government with flexible and compressed work schedules. We see no particular problems for the Agency with the basics of the Bill. NPIC is presently experimenting with flextime and several components in the Agency are operating on compressed work schedules.

2. The authority provided in the Bill for the Civil Service Commission, i.e. granting exceptions and establishing the administrative provisions, could pose problems for the Agency. This authority for review is the same aspect we are protesting in the Henderson Bill, and to be consistent, we recommend an exception also be requested in this instance. The CSC administrative procedures may pose no problems, and it is probable the Agency would follow them without deviation, but we would not want to be in the position of having CSC internal review should this be a provision in their regulations.
