      in March 1956, the UMA
      complained that "under

76. YUGOSLAVIA

Note: The WIDF Council expelled its Yugoslav affiliate -- the Organization of Yugoslav Women -- in November 1949, in line with the CPSU policy after the Tito-Cominform rift. Now, again conforming to the current CPSU-Yugoslav CP rapprochement, the WIDF Council, at its meeting in Peking in April 1956 "... at the request of several of its members," examined its previous decision and "...recognized that this decision was unjust." It "unanimously decided to revoke it." As of August 1956, the Organization of Yugoslav Women had not accepted the WIDF invitation to reaffiliate.

77. UNDESIGNATED AFFILIATIONS

The WIDF Council, elected by the World Congress of Women in June 1953, included reserved "slots" for undesignated members from Peru, Thailand and Trieste and designated the following members from Portugal: Maria SILVESTRE, Julia COSTA, Ester DURSO and Helena SA. It is, therefore, assumed that the WIDF has an unidentified affiliate and/or parallel organization in each of these countries.

WIDF Council *
(June 1953 - )

* According to the provisions of the WIDF Constitution, each national affiliate of the WIDF designates its candidates for Council Membership or Deputy Membership on the basis of the total national population figures: one member and one deputy per affiliate from each country whose population does not exceed 5 million; two members and two deputies per affiliate from each country whose population does not exceed 30 million; three members and three deputies per affiliate from each country whose population does not exceed 75 million; four members and four deputies per affiliate from each country whose population does not exceed 140 million; and five members and three deputies per affiliate from each country whose population exceeds 140 million.

The Council is elected by the WIDF Congress from a slate of candidates submitted by each national affiliate.

The Control Commission members are named by the Congress from the Council members who are not members of the Executive Committee.

The above-listed officers of the Control Commission and Council will continue to serve in their designated capacities until the next WIDF Congress meets and reelects new members. The last WIDF Congress was held in Copenhagen, June 1953.
